

David Pengelly

Biography

David Pengelly is a singer and humorist with strings attached, but foremost, David is a full-fledged, first class entertainer.

David was born near Rochester, New York, and began his professional career at an early age in local radio and television. After graduating from the University of New York at Canton, David himself became a much-in-demand performer on the college and university circuit. David then spent two years in the United States Army as an entertainment specialist in the Army's Special services.

David has had the good fortune to share the stage with some of the all time greats, such as Frankie Laine, Red Skelton, Kenny Rogers, John Denver, and Jimmy Buffett .

Today David Pengelly is a veteran of international audiences. He has taken his unique blend of Americana literally around the world, performing to standing ovations from Russia to the Great Wall of China.

When David is not performing, he and his wife Suzanne spend time on their horse farm near Atlanta, Georgia.

David's show is diverse and unpredictable- something for everyone to enjoy.
