JONI BUTLER

Described in Nashville Music Magazine as a “young Barbra Streisand with the unbelievable range and power of Sarah Brightman,” Joni has captivated audiences from a very young age. She has been recognized by her peers, earning 2 Grammy award nominations. Joni has performed at the Grand Ole Opry, Radio City Music Hall, and fulfilling a life-long dream, performing at the legendary Carnegie Hall.

For a four year run, Joni headlined a spectacular Broadway revue show called “Serenade” which played to sold-out audiences. Her show-stopping performances were featured on billboards all around the beautiful city of Charleston South Carolina. “Joni is a wonderful talent and brings so much to the show with her incredible singing, dancing, and hilarious comedy sketches” said Calvin Gilmore, owner and producer of the Carolina Opry in Myrtle Beach.

Joni is privileged to have performed with outstandingly great stars such as these:

Tom Jones
Bob Newhart
The Osmond Brothers
Oak Ridge Boys
Trisha Yearwood
and many more....

Her vocal versatility spans the entire musical genre - Jazz, Country, Pop, Blues, Big Band and Broadway. She is best known for her mesmerizing epic renditions of well known ballads.

Joni’s emotional conveyance of a song, vocal versatility, professional showmanship, and her personal interaction on an intimate level with the audience appeals to the young and the young at heart.

“I’ve been told that the greatest sign of success is when the promoter asks, “when can we have you back?” “ That’s my goal....to always be entertaining, engaging, and down right good!!! I hope we’ll be having a great time together soon!!!” Joni xo
