

ELISABETH VON TRAPP

Bach to Broadway / Schubert to Sting

Elisabeth's concert programs cover a wide stylistic range. With seamless ease, she applies her luminescent voice to the music of contemporary folk and jazz, Bach and Richard Rodgers. Her pure voice is accompanied by the elegant arrangements of her own guitar and longtime musical collaborator, cellist Erich Kory.

Please note that Elisabeth is always tailoring her concert songlist to match the occasion or to accommodate special requests and taking some songs out to make room for new ones. However, I think that the following list does give a very fair and accurate idea of the of music included in her concert program.
