

RADIO THEATRE
FRANKENSTEIN

"From the critically-acclaimed, award-winning performance group, that brought you KING KONG, WAR OF THE WORLDS, DRACULA, THE INVISIBLE MAN, THE TIME MACHINE and more, now comes Mary Shelley's masterpiece, FRANKENSTEIN, adapted for the stage with a great cast of story tellers, an original orchestral score and a plethora of sound effects! All that is required is your imagination!"

"In 1818, a 19 year old girl, Mary Shelley, wrote the most frightening and still the most influential science-fiction novel of all time...FRANKENSTEIN!

Join RadioTheatre for this fabulous tale of science gone wrong when biology university student Victor Frankenstein takes it upon himself to become God! Witness the birth of his creature created from corpses collected from grave yards under the full moon...thrill as lightning explodes from the heavens sending electrodes pulsing through the machines to bring life to the monster...shiver when the monster rebels and pledges to destroy his maker who has shunned him! This great classic of world fiction is also brought to life by the award winning sound design and totally unique orchestral score that only RadioTheatre can deliver, turning the theater itself into an environmental experience! Just bring your imagination!"
