

Letter from Executive Director of Warfield Concerts, Helena, Arkansas, sent to David zum Brunnen, producer and principal singer/actor in War Bonds

Dear David,

I don't think you need me to tell you how much your concert was enjoyed. I think the audience made their feelings known with their response. The feedback we have had has been remarkable. This is a note from one lady:

Dear Committee, I noticed the listings of memorials in your program for the wonderful "War Bonds" show. My husband Lt. Col. Earl J. Bass, died 30 September, 2010; he would have so enjoyed the evening. Please include this WWII Veteran in your next listing. He is also known as a crop duster called Sam. Please accept this check in gratitude for your wonderful concert. Sincerely, Clara Bass.

It is so heartwarming to have a couple such as you and Serena, endeavor to bring to life through your show and the letters you have included in it, the bravery and the soul of the young men and women who fight our wars. Many of our veterans are old and feeble now, just shadows of their former selves, but your show gives them renewed vigor and a sense of pride that their sacrifice has not been forgotten. The Warfield Concerts was surely honored by your performance; we thank you and Serena and your orchestra for an unforgettable evening.

Maureen
