

These Three Tenors present “From Broadway to the Met!”

A masterfully arranged program of classics ranging from Opera to Broadway, with tributes to legendary artists such as Mario Lanza, Luciano Pavarotti, to the current sensation, Andrea Bocelli. You will hear a variety of cleverly staged and choreographed medleys, providing “...a performance that has the elegance of a concert, and the excitement of a staged show at the same time!...These are men of talent, with powerful, soaring voices and great artistry. Their performance transported us from Broadway to the Met with a phenomenal range of voice and showmanship.” -Linda Covington of Covington House, NC. “ ‘These Three Tenors’ were greeted with thunderous applause song after song. The audience almost seemed to bounce at times, torn between the conflicting impulses to stand and applaud...and not wanting to interrupt, even for a moment-the show unfolding before them.” -John Boesch, Southern Pines, NC. “These Three Tenors will satisfy all musical tastes in your audience. Classically they are flawless, and their interaction with the audience is showmanship at its best!” -Lynette Weiss, McKinney Concerts Assoc, TX
