

THAT MANCINI MAGIC!

The Timeless Music of Henry Mancini

Cecil Welch • Mac Frampton • The Moon River Orchestra

Henry Mancini owned the Sixties, at least when it came to musical romance. One after another, his songs won the Oscars and the hearts of a worldwide audience. Even today, children laugh with The Pink Panther and the Baby Elephant Walk; lovers dream of Moon River and remember The Days Of Wine and Roses; and Peter Gunn fills the air in cool jazz clubs. Henry Mancini's imprint is lasting and vital. And now Cecil Welch, Mr. Mancini's solo trumpeter for twenty years, and the renowned Mac Frampton bring his great music to the stage in an intimate outpouring of cherished melodies.

Supported by The Moon River Orchestra, an ensemble of violins, saxophone, and rhythm, That Mancini Magic! is an enchanting voyage through the inspired melodies that earned Henry Mancini the stature as one of America's greatest composers, an exquisite anthem for lovers, dreamers, and children of all ages.
