

VINCENT TALARICO

The critics have named him "one of most versatile and hard working performers of our time". Vincent is an "all around entertainer, a complete performer".

Vincent sings in three languages and his vocal versatility and range is second to none. He is an accomplished drummer, dancer and is even a part time comedian. Vincent moves people with love, passion, sincerity, emotion through his voice. His outgoing personality connects with any demographic and is infectious.

Vincent just completed a successful engagement at the Taj Mahal Casino in Atlantic City, which ended on Oct. 10, 2009, where he performed his show "POP'ra" which included Italian classics, and the music of Barry Manilow, Billy Joel, Neil Diamond, Frank Sinatra, Caruso, Luciano Pavarotti, and Andrea Bocelli.

Vincent has been singing professionally since the age of 9. He has been the opening act for Jackie Mason, Rodney Dangerfield, Jerry Seinfeld, Robin Williams, The Smothers Brothers, Buddy Hackett, Pat Cooper, Richard Belzer, Paul Riser and many more. He has recorded on the CBS and Arista labels.
